 THE ORGANIZATION OF Virginia Homeschoolers
Your Resource ★ Your Voice ★ Your Association

VaHomeschoolers believes that knowledge and information lead to confident, empowered homeschooling families, which are vital to supporting and sustaining homeschooling rights.

Who can homeschool?

You can! Any parent may legally homeschool in Virginia.

Do families like mine homeschool?

Yes! Homeschooling families are a cross section of Virginia's overall population, and you'll find a great deal of variety in the homeschooling community.

What about socialization?

It's not a problem! Homeschooling families enjoy a vibrant social network. You can find us with friends at parks, museums and learning co-ops, as well as participating in community activities like sports and scouting.

What curriculum should I use?

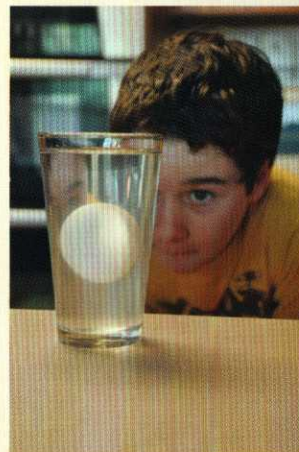

You decide! Homeschooling parents in Virginia have the freedom to choose whatever educational approach is best for their children.

How can we ensure that we maintain our homeschool freedoms?

Join! Your membership helps VaHomeschoolers advocate for fair and effective laws and policies and to support homeschooling families with information and resources.

VaHomeschoolers provides you with complete information, anytime, to answer all of your homeschooling questions!
