

MCPS Technology Vision

Mecklenburg County Public Schools envisions a learning environment that integrates technology to enhance teaching in a 21st Century environment and learning in the most productive manner. We believe that teachers, administrators, and support personnel utilizing current and future technology to prepare students to become global leaders, critical thinkers, and problem solvers, achieving the skill necessary to compete in a global economy.