

Share your talents and make some extra money this summer!

Longwood University invites you to submit your ideas for a creative and challenging course for rising 4th through 7th grade students during a two week Talented and Gifted Program July 6 – 17, 2020.

TAG Students from the localities surrounding Longwood are eager to learn new and exciting things. Ten to twelve teachers will be chosen based on their submitted curriculum. Classes are taught on the Longwood University Campus.

Why teach TAG Camp at Longwood?

- Enjoy the ability to teach a subject you are passionate about with a curriculum created by YOU!
- Students choose the classes they are interested in, so they are excited about the subject and eager to learn.
- New teachers receive $1,600 and returning teachers receive $1,800 for the 2 week course.
- Teachers are reimbursed up to $200 for supplies purchased to teach your program.

Apply online at <http://bit.ly/2020TAGTeacher> by April 17, 2020.

You will be notified if your class was chosen by April 20.

Questions can be directed to Allison Allgood, ajwallgood@gmail.com or (434) 316-8839.

LONGWOOD

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
AND HUMAN SERVICES